

2014 Sports and Entertainment Bee Round 2

1. The ghost of Delbert Grady appears in a bathroom in one scene of this film, and a documentary about this film states its director worked to fake the Apollo 11 landings. Much of the action of this movie takes place in Room 237, and its climax occurs in the hedge maze surrounding the Overlook Hotel. Famous for the line “All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy,” name this horror film starring Jack Nicholson and directed by Stanley Kubrick.

ANSWER: The Shining

2. This movie was based on an unproduced play called Everybody Comes to Rick's, and it derived much publicity due to opening shortly after Operation Torch. In it, Victor Laszlo and Ilsa Lund are anti-Nazi fighters trying to reach America, while Captain Louis Renault refuses to arrest the lead when he kills Major Strasser. Name this film that stars Humphrey Bogart as Rick and is set in a Moroccan city.

ANSWER: Casablanca

3. Jamal Crawford has done this 41 times, 18 times more than Reggie Miller. Sam Smith was the first to this in an NBA game on October 21, 1979 for the Chicago Bulls. This has happened only 16 times in the history of the NBA Finals with Ray Allen of the Miami Heat doing it twice in one game against San Antonio in 2013. What is this feat completed twice in the span of 11 seconds by James Jones in 2009 in which a player must finish with one free throw?

ANSWER: Completion of a Four Point Play

4. In a 1998 postseason game, he argued with an umpire during live play allowing Enrique Wilson to score the go-ahead run in the 12th inning. He only hit 98 home runs in his career but was included in the Mitchell Report after Brian McNamee stated he injected this man several times with HGH in 2001. Who was this second-baseman who hit the mother of sportscaster Keith Olbermann in the face with an errant throw and left Yankee Stadium in street clothes during a June, 2000 game having removed himself following three throwing errors in six innings?

ANSWER: Chuck Knoblauch

5. This actor's big screen breakthrough occurred when Robert De Niro hand picked him to play the lead role in This Boy's Life. The star of such films as The Departed, Catch Me If You Can, and Inception, this actor famously continued filming a scene in Django, Unchained despite cutting his hand open. Name this actor who is pitied for never winning an Oscar, known for playing Jack Dawson in Titanic.

ANSWER: Leonardo DiCaprio

6. This player served as captain of the Edmonton Oilers from 1983 to 1988, the year they sent him to the Los Angeles Kings. He joined the St. Louis Blues in 1996 but only stayed for a year before moving to the New York Rangers, with whom he played until retiring in 1999. He is the only NHL player to score over 200 points in a season, a feat he accomplished four times. Name this Canadian with jersey number 99.

ANSWER: Wayne Gretzky

7. This man's first fictional work was based on a book by John Bunyan and was known as The Pilgrim's Regress, although he is more known for his work on medieval literature. While he also wrote The Space Trilogy, he is even more noted for Mere Christianity and The Screwtape Letters. For ten points, name this author of The Horse and His Boy.

ANSWER: Clive Staples (C.S.) Lewis

8. In this year's NFL Draft, 13 quarterbacks were taken including Ingle Martin from Furman. In this year's NBA Draft, Sheldon Williams of Duke was the first senior selected and Tyrus Thomas of LSU was the first freshman picked. In this year's MLB Draft, future All-Stars Evan Longoria, Clayton Kershaw, Tim Lincecum, and Max Scherzer were all first-round picks. What was this year which saw the Houston Texans pass on Reggie Bush and Vince Young to select Mario Williams first overall in the NFL Draft?

ANSWER: 2006

9. The Hall of Fame for this sport is located in Holyoke, Massachusetts, the city in which this sport was invented in 1895. The three standard formations in this sport are "four-two", "six-two", and "five-one", and the original version of this sport, Mintonette, was designed to be an indoor sport less rough than basketball. Name this sport which can be played with rally or side-out scoring and whose beach version debuted at the 1996 Olympics.

ANSWER: Volleyball

10. This NHL franchise has won the Stanley Cup three times since its inception in 1967. They followed back-to-back wins in 1991 and 1992 with several years of turbulence and retired Michel Briere's number in honor of his untimely death. Name this team that played in "The Igloo," won the Stanley Cup in 2009 and features stars Evgeni Malkin and Sidney Crosby.

ANSWER: Pittsburgh Penguins

11. After finishing second in 1999, this man won a Division I National Championship in 2000 representing the University of Minnesota. After graduation, he teamed with former roommate Shelton Benjamin to form the Minnesota Stretching Crew and became The Next Big Thing under the guidance of Paul Heyman. Who is this WWE wrestler, who experimented with Mixed Martial Arts, and ended The Undertaker's undefeated streak at WrestleMania XXX(30) in 2014?

ANSWER: Brock Lesnar

12. In one film, this actor plays Gerry Lane who discovers the main antagonists do not attack those who are seriously ill. In another film, this actor calls members of Project Mayhem the "All singing, all dancing crap of the world." He plays a man whose wife is killed at the end of Se7en, as well as the leader of a group of Nazi hunters. Name this actor who played Aldo Raine in Inglorious Basterds and Tyler Durden in Flight Club.

ANSWER: Brad Pitt

13. Patrick Warburton voices this character on one show where he occasionally battles the energy vampire NOS-4-A2 and works with Mira Nova. While under a minivan at a gas station, this character calls another character a “Sad strange little man” before trying to get to Pizza Planet. This Tim Allen-voiced character saves his friend from the owner of Al’s Toy Barn in the 2nd film in which he appears. Name this space ranger from Toy Story.

ANSWER: Buzz Lightyear [accept either]

14. This MLB franchise began as only the second outside the United States when it was founded in 1977 and they have not made a playoff appearance since 1993 despite winning the World Series in consecutive years in 1992 and 1993. Name this only MLB team currently based outside the United States.

ANSWER: Toronto Blue Jays

15. This movie features a student making out with a hot dog in the “Burn Book”, as well as a math teacher accused of selling drugs to students. Other characters in this movie include a student whose father is the inventor of Toaster Strudel, a student whose hair is so large because it’s “full of secrets”, and a student who is “too gay to function”. Name this movie starring Lindsay Lohan as Cady Heron, a homeschooled student who joins the popular group, the Plastics.

Answer: Mean Girls

16. This man graduated from DePauw University in 1999 with a degree in economics and scored a career high 24 points in one of his 101 Tigers basketball games. He began his coaching career under Thad Matta before Todd Lickliter promoted him to a full-time assistant coach. Who is this coach who led his Bulldogs from Hinkle Fieldhouse to the NCAA Division I National Championship Game in consecutive seasons and recently completed his first year with the Boston Celtics?

ANSWER: Brad Stevens

17. Will Parker and Ado Annie are the secondary romance in this Rodgers and Hammerstein musical which primarily concerns Curly McLain and Laurey Williams. Numbers from this production include “The Surrey with the Fringe on Top” and “Oh, What a Beautiful Mornin’.” Name this musical titled after an American state.

ANSWER: Oklahoma!

18. He became an instant celebrity, though not for his play on the field. He became Wesleyan University’s All-Time hits leader in 2006 but is better known for a play, thus described by Jon Miller: “There’s a high fly ball to right, deep. Going back is Tarasco, to the warning track, to the wall, he’s under it now, and it’s taken away from him by a fan, and they’re going to call it...a home run!” Who was this fan who as a 12-year-old assisted on a Derek Jeter home run?

ANSWER: Jeffery Maier

19. The “Stacko” variant of this game combines it with Jenga, while its “Slam” variant includes an added clock. As many as twelve cards can be dispensed out of an automatic launcher in this game’s “Attack” variant, which includes cards marked “reverse” and “wild draw four.” Identify this colored card game whose name comes from the Spanish for “one.”

ANSWER: Uno

20. This Ohioan holds the major league records for most innings pitched and most games lost, and he also pitched the third perfect game in baseball history. He was inducted into the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1937 and he holds the record for the most wins in baseball history. Name this man, the namesake of an award given to the best pitcher in the American League and National League each year.

ANSWER: Cy Young

21. Jack Wayne flies an airplane for these characters who at one point travel to Wildcat Swamp. One friend of these characters owns a yellow jalopy and hangs out Biff Hooper and Tony Prito. This Bayport group owns a speedboat called the Sleuth, and often assist their father, Fenton. The namesakes of a series of books written “Franklin W. Dixon,” identify this investigative duo made up of Frank and Joe.

ANSWER: The Hardy Boys

22. It follows Colorado Boulevard, a former segment of US 66 before ending near Victory Park after 5.5 miles. The 2014 edition of this featured 45 floats, including one from eHarmony and SeaWorld and preceded a 24-20 Michigan St. victory over Stanford in Pasadena. What is this annual New Year’s Day parade sponsored by Honda and featuring the Los Angeles Unified School All District High School Honor Band with a floral name?

ANSWER: Rose Parade [accept: Tournament of Roses Parade]

23. Three circular goals are placed on both sides of the pitch and a volleyball and three dodgeballs are placed in the center of the field before a game of this sport can begin. Ten points are awarded for every goal. This sport was created in 2005 at Middlebury College in Vermont, who won the first five intercollegiate championships. Name this sport, the muggle adaptation of a fictional sport developed by J.K. Rowling.

ANSWER: [Muggle] Quidditch

24. This director of the 1999 film Sleepy Hollow has also directed film adaptations of two Roald Dahl books as well as 1990 Batman and 1992 Batman Returns. His most recent release was 2012's Frankenweenie although he is most noted for his adaptation of a play about a barber. Name this director of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and Sweeney Todd: The Demon Barber of Fleet Street.

ANSWER: Tim Burton

25. This movie won the first Academy Award for Best Animated Feature and it spawned several sequels. Voice actors included John Lithgow as the antagonist, with Eddie Murphy providing comic relief while Cameron Diaz and Michael Myers voiced the lead roles. Name this Dreamworks movie about an ogre.

ANSWER: Shrek

26. Players of the standard format of this game build decks of 60 cards using up to five colors. One card from this game, Black Lotus, is worth over $15,000. In this game, Players “tap” land cards for mana to cast creatures, enchantments, spells, and Planeswalkers. Name this trading card game by Wizards of the Coast, most commonly played on Friday nights.

ANSWER: Magic: The Gathering

27. This horse ended his racing career with six victories in seven races with one “Did Not Finish.” In winning the Kentucky Derby, this horse finished with a margin of victory of eight lengths, the largest in the Run for the Roses since 1946. Two weeks later, this horse broke his right hind leg and was eventually euthanized on January 29, 2007. Name this horse, a heavy favorite at Pimlico, whose namesake sculpture was unveiled at Churchill Downs in 2009.

ANSWER: Barbaro

28. This game’s locations were based on Atlantic City geography and it was created by Elizabeth Agie to demonstrate the problem with renting. Chance and Community Chest cards are involved as well as a jail card. What is this game named after the concept of a single seller of an item?

ANSWER: Monopoly

29. His first coaching position was at his alma mater where he worked with tight ends even though he had played defensive end and linebacker. From Brown, he transitioned to the ACC where he served from 1995-2002 at Georgia Tech, 2003-2004 at Maryland, and 2005-2006 at Duke before earning his first NFL coaching position with the New England Patriots. He was Joe Paterno’s replacement at Penn St. before leaving State College after two seasons for the NFL. Who is this current head coach of the Houston Texans?

ANSWER: William (Bill) O’Brien

30. The first major professional sports stadium to be LEED certified in the United States, this ballpark opened with George Washington University defeating St. Joseph’s University in March, 2008. In the first Major League Baseball regular season game played there, Ryan Zimmerman sent the home fans happy with a walk-off home run against the Atlanta Braves. Name this baseball stadium built along the Anacostia River.

ANSWER: Nationals Park